INTRODUCING DARRELL CLARKE

On Friday evening, Darrell Clarke was announced as the new Cheltenham Town manager replacing Wade Elliott after 15 months in charge.

The 45-year-old watched the Robins' 2-0 defeat to Lincoln City in person ahead of officially taking over on Monday ahead of tonight's game against Fleetwood Town.

"It's a club with a great history, they've had some good managers over the years and I'm really looking forward to the challenge," said Clarke speaking to the club channels on Monday morning.

Clarke has enjoyed a successful career in the game both as a player which spanned 18 years and then since as a manager where he has won promotions with Salisbury Town, Bristol Rovers and most recently Port Vale.

"It's always a club that I've thought has been a well-run football club in the past. I looked at it and put my CV in, obviously with plenty of games I've managed now, plenty of experience and I thought it’s a job that I could make a difference in.”

“I’m hoping to make a massive difference and I believe at every club I’ve managed I’ve put them in a better place”

The Robins wouldn’t find themselves in their current position without the work of Michael Duff and Elliott and the new manager was quick to recognise those feats.

“Credit to the work Michael Duff and Wade Elliott have done over the last few years and it has certainly been a well-run football club that has achieved success in getting promoted from League Two to League One.”

There are a few recognisable faces around the club having previously worked with George Lloyd and Liam Sercombe and they will know first hand the demands Clarke has in store for the players.

“Giving everything and that isn’t just on a Saturday at three o’clock but throughout the week, the training plan, what they eat, how they live their lives and how they respond to what I want from them.”

The former midfielder has arrived with the club in the midst of a poor run of form but the events of the season so far aren’t fazing him and his bullish approach.

“I can’t change the past. The only thing I can do is try and change the future. That’s why I’m in the building to look at all aspects of the football club to get us back to positive results and positive performances.

“I will be assessing everything over the coming weeks and months to try and make sure we are moving in the right direction.

“It’s going to take time. I’m not stupid enough to think that a team that hasn’t scored a goal or won for 10 games isn’t going to take time.

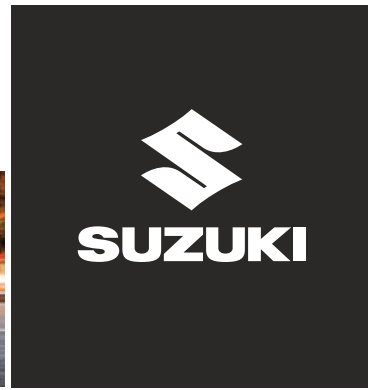

“I’m hoping to make a massive difference and I believe at every club I’ve managed I’ve put them in a better place and I will be looking to do the same with Cheltenham.”

The journey starts with three successive home games within seven days and Clarke wants to leave an early impression on the loyal Robins fanbase.

“The message is for us to get winning games. The only way you please fans up and down the country at different clubs is by winning football matches.”

JOVAN MALCOLM

Jovan Malcolm has taken to life in League One since he arrived at the Completely-Suzuki Stadium at the start of September.

The talented attacker joined the Robins on loan from West Bromwich Albion on transfer deadline day, becoming the club's 13th signing of the summer window.

The pacy forward has set the youth football stage alight for years at the Baggies but made the switch, looking to continue his fledgling career.

"It is a great opportunity to kickstart my career," began Malcolm.

"It's a chance for me to get some decent gametime and I'm really hoping I can contribute.

"It's all about building your CV and performances and hopefully this is a platform where I can grow and improve."

Jovan has spent the majority of his footballing journey with West Brom, alongside brief loan spells to Accrington Stanley and Solihull Moors in recent years and is full of praise for the club that he calls home.

"It's been great at West Brom. From a young age I've always loved it but you do need to branch out and do your own thing and make a name for yourself."

During his time in the Baggies' academy, he featured in the 2021/22 Premier League Cup success and has crafted a direct approach to his game.

"I'm versatile and I can play anywhere across the front three. I like to get one on one, shoot and run at people."

The 20-year-old described his arrival at the club on deadline day as stressful, but he has had no such issues since joining up with the first team squad.

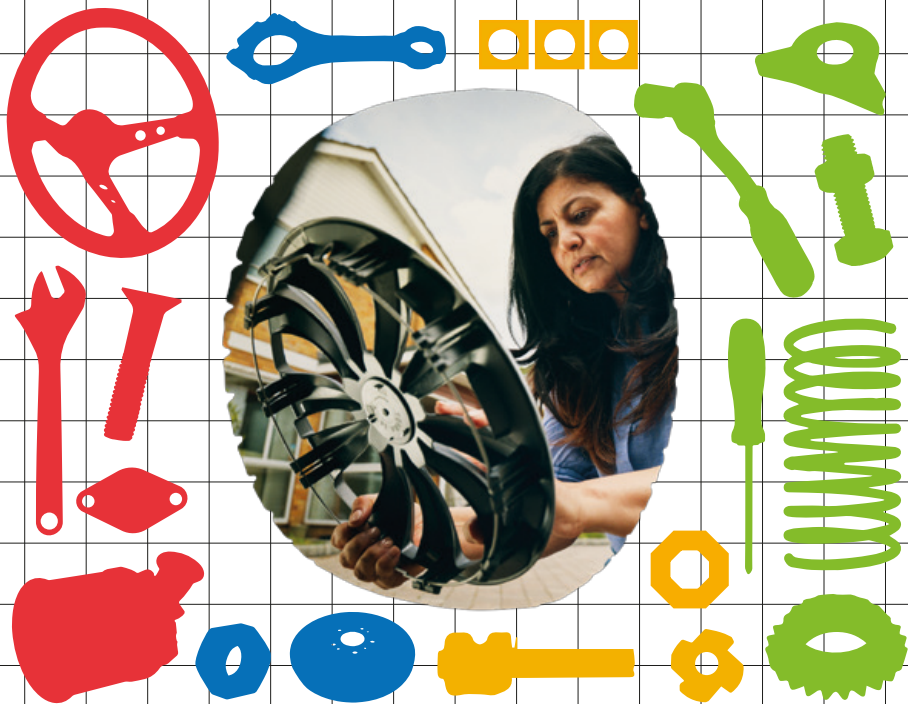

"The boys are welcoming, and it has been easy to settle in."

"Every day you play you have got to give your all and do your best. If I can be myself and do my best hopefully everything else takes care of itself."

Since joining, the attacker has been a regular for the Robins and will be desperate to set his stall out early on to the Robins fanbase as well as new manager Darrell Clarke.

13th, League One

Fleetwood Town have been a regular at League One level for 10 years since their fast rise up the English football pyramid but a stumbling start to the new season is putting that record under threat.

Under the stewardship of Scott Brown last term Fleetwood recorded a 13th place finish, three places above the Robins. However, the Scottish manager has since been relieved of his duties after the poor start and in his place the well-travelled Lee Johnson has arrived.

Son of former Town manager Gary Johnson, Lee and his side picked up their first win of the season by a singular goal against Leyton Orient on the weekend to head into this evening on a rare high.

The Robins are unbeaten in the last three visits between the sides after a 0-0 away draw last term was followed up by a vital 1-0 win in the reverse fixture back in March.

Most notably in the Cod Army ranks is a former Robin that made the move up north over the summer in Ryan Broom.

Broom made the switch to Highbury to further bolster the attacking department, already spearheaded by strikers Jack Marriot and Jayden Stockley. Alongside them is creative midfielder Danny Mayor, who was part of Plymouth Argyle's League One title winning squad last term.

The additions of Danny Graydon, a winger from Derry City, Kabongo Tshimanga from Peterborough United and former Chelsea youngster Xavier Simons have also been welcomed in Lancashire.

The new look squad are still finding their feet with Johnson at the helm. But the pressing concerns of a return to League Two after more than a decade in the third tier is something they will be desperate to avoid come the end of the season.

Jack Marriot

#HER GAME

IT'S #HERGAMETO

In 2021, a group of passionate women fans felt mobilised to start a campaign called #HerGameToo.

The campaign is committed to fostering an ethos in football where women are welcomed and respected equally and can be confident sharing their opinions about football online and in person without fear of sexist abuse. This afternoon, we introduce two new advocates to the cause.

Cheltenham Town's Her Game Too ambassador, Kelly-Marie Selby, tells us: "Growing up loving football, it was so sad that not only did girls not have the opportunities that boys had to further their abilities, but trying to voice my opinion was almost impossible. As soon as I tried to express any views I was told I was a girl, I didn't know anything about football, and I should just concentrate on make up and being a girl.

"The younger me shied away from fighting, but as I got older, I knew this wasn't right and that I should be allowed to join in on conversations about football. So when the opportunity came to become an ambassador of an amazing campaign to empower women to have a voice without fear, I put myself forward. Over the past few months I've been ambassador for Her Game Too Cheltenham, and this has now grown with two incredible ladies coming on board - Mary Stone and Taz Scales.

"Together, we want to help create an environment at The Completely-Suzuki Stadium where women of all ages can feel welcome and safe without fear of sexism and misogyny, knowing there are avenues to report such incidents."

Introducing themselves, Taz explained: "53 years ago the ban of woman playing football was finally lifted, and now we are seeing woman on the big screens influencing the new generation. Her Game Too brings awareness to the struggles woman players and fans may face and how we can eliminate it. I am so excited to work alongside Her Game Too to raise more awareness and inspire the younger generations."

Alongside Taz and Kelly-Marie, Mary reflected on what the campaign is for her: "Her Game Too means being able to go and watch football games wherever I want, whenever I want, without being made uncomfortable. In the short space of time I've been involved with this group, I've connected with so many female football friends, like Kelly and Taz, and sharing our experiences together shows exactly why we're doing what we're doing.

"I'd encourage everyone to find a way to get involved with Her Game Too, it could be through doing something so simple as wearing our badge or taking a more front facing role in tackling sexism in football."
